Young Preachers' Institute.—W. H. Johnston, for information, read the report of the committee appointed to supervise and conduct the Young Preachers' Institute at Franklin last June. The report was received and is as follows:

REPORT ON YOUNG PREACHERS' INSTITUTE.

The fourth annual session of the Young Preachers' Institute was held at Franklin June 1 to 8.

Thirty-nine young preachers attended whose expenses were paid by the committee. They came from the following Districts: Columbia District, 2; Dickson District, 10; Fayetteville District, 4; Franklin District, 2; Gallatin District, 4; Lebanon District, 9; Mt. Pleasant District, 4; Murfreesboro District, 4. The Clarksville District had no representatives. Those coming from the Nashville District paid their own expenses.

In addition to the thirty-nine whose expenses were paid, twenty-six others attended the Institute, paying their own expenses, making a total attendance of sixty-five.

A splendid program was carried out, and those attending were enthusiastic in their commendation of the Institute. It was the most largely attended and most satisfactory session that we have held.

The young preachers attending earnestly requested that this important work be continued; and we, your committee, feel that the effort and money expended in this Institute constitute one of the wisest investments being made by our Conference.

It is still, as from the beginning, being financed for the most part by individual contributions, and we have never lacked for money. All bills were promptly paid, the treasurer's books have been audited, and we have on hand enough money to begin next year's work.

We feel that this Institute is a vital factor in fitting our young preachers for their life work, and is entitled to the most cordial coöperation of the presiding elders and other leaders of the Conference.

Respectfully submitted.

J. J. STOWE, Chairman;
E. E. FRENCH, Secretary;
T. A. KERLEY,
WILLIAM H. JOHNSTON,
E. P. ANDERSON.

Whereas the sum of money at the disposal of the Board of Finance to be used for the benefit of the worn-out preachers of our Conference and the widows of deceased preachers is shamefully inadequate; and whereas both the active preacher and the layman are restless to do something for these faithful servants of the Church "who have borne the burden in the heat of the day"—be it

Resolved, That we as a Conference recommend that the presiding elders lay this matter before their district stewards, asking them to set aside one Sunday early in the Conference year for the presentation of the cause of our superannuates, and that a freewill offering be taken to be sent to the Treasurer of the Board of Finance, which shall be distributed as a supplement to the annual appropriation to the beneficiaries of the fund on the basis of the distribution of the Conference assessment.

We would respectfully recommend that this be done in time for the money to be sent as a Christmas offering.

Resolved: 1, That we thank Dr. Morrison for the effective and memorable work and pray that the blessings of our Father may abide with him.

2. That we ask Rev. George R. Stuart, D.D., to do a work of this nature during the session of our next Annual Conference.

Washington City Church.—The special committee appointed to consider Report No. 1 of the Board of Church Extension, regarding our Washington City Church, made the following report, which was adopted:

Your committee, to whom was referred the matter of our obligations as a Conference to our Representative Church in Washington City, beg leave to report as follows:

We feel that our pledge to this enterprise is a solemn obligation, and that the part which remains unpaid—namely, $4,807.40—should be provided for and paid as soon as practicable.

Therefore we recommend that $1,607.40 of that amount be apportioned this year to the districts on the basis of other assessments, and that it be apportioned to the charges by the district stewards on the basis of their assessments, so that it shall become a part of the amount assumed and collected by each charge for Church Extension.

We recommend further that the remainder—namely, $3,200—be collected in the same way—$1,600 in the current year of 1921-22 and the last $1,600 in 1922-23.

J. ALLISON MOLLOY,
JAMES H. PARKES,
H. B. REAMS.

The report of the Board and Bishop Candler's letter follow:

REPORT NO. 1, BOARD OF CHURCH EXTENSION.

The attached letter from Bishop W. A. Candler, addressed to the chairman of our Board, with reference to the subscription of the Tennessee Conference to the Representative Church in Washington City, is referred to the Conference for a reply for the following reasons:

1. The original subscription for $5,000 was made in open Conference, a motion having been made, seconded, and duly carried committing the Conference to the raising of that amount, without any reference to our Conference Board of Church Extension or recommendation from the same to this body.

2. At the Conference in 1916 your Board of Church Extension proposed the levying of an assessment to cover this subscription, which was promptly voted down. We then proposed that the amount be apportioned to the various districts and charges of the Conference on the same basis as that of the benevolent claims, and that each pastor should present the matter to his Church or Churches and take a freewill offering for this enterprise, which recommendation was adopted by the Conference. This apportionment was made and forwarded by your secretary to the various districts and resulted in the raising of $192.60, the balance of the $5,000 still being charged against us. Since we are not responsible, as a Board, for this subscription, and do not find ourselves in position to make further suggestions as to the collection of the same, we therefore bring the whole matter before the Conference, to make such reply to the letter of Bishop Candler as it may see fit.

P. A. SOWELL, Chairman;
T. C. RAGSDALE, Secretary.

LETTER OF BISHOP CANDLER.

ATLANTA, GA., October 4, 1920.

Rev. P. A. Sowell, care of Tennessee Conference, Shelbyville, Tenn.

My Dear Brother Sowell: I am writing to you as President of the Board of Church Extension of the Tennessee Conference, to ask your aid with reference to the pledge of the Tennessee Conference for the erection of our Representative Church in Washington, D. C.

The Conference pledged $5,000, and of this pledge $4,807.40 remains unpaid.

Most of the Conferences have paid their pledges, and the Church has been completed. From the inclosed statement you will see what a great work it is doing. It has redeemed our cause at the national capital. I am sure the Tennessee Conference will be unwilling to allow its pledged part to go unpaid, and I am writing to ask your help in the matter.

With kindest regards, and wishing for you a pleasant session, I am yours very truly,

W. A. CANDLER.

Thanks.—The following paper was presented by R. J. Craig and adopted unanimously by a rising vote:

Whereas the citizens of Shelbyville, in a manner memorable, have opened their homes to the members of the Tennessee Annual Conference and have entertained them in such a beautiful, hospitable way; and whereas the congregations of the various Churches have extended the warm hand of brotherhood and showered blessings on our heads and hearts; and whereas the members of the Rich Valley Circuit identified themselves with the Methodists of Shelbyville and, together with their pastor, Rev. I. W. Parish, said, "We, too, join gladly in being host;" and whereas our Bishop, James Atkins, has so thoughtfully, kindly, and wisely presided over this Conference, one of the best we have ever known; and whereas the N. C. & St. L. Railway, and the Nashville Banner and the Nashville Tennessean extended to us especial favors—therefore be it

Resolved, That we appreciate the kindness of the citizens, the fraternity of the various Churches, the hospitality of our members, the wisdom of the Bishop, the kindness of the railroad, the courtesy of the papers, and we feel that all of the above mentioned agencies assisted in making a Conference that will worthily claim a place of note in the history of the Tennessee Conference.

R. J. CRAIG,

J. E. WOODWARD,

H. B. BLUE.

Elders.—Question 16 was called: "What traveling preachers and what local preachers have been ordained elders?" The brethren, previously elected to elder's orders, were called before the Conference. The Bishop propounded the Disciplinary questions, which received satisfactory answers, W. S. Taylor read the Epistle and R. J. Craig the Gospel. The following brethren joined the Bishop in the laying on of hands: W. J. Collier, P. A. Sowell, T. W. Noland, and H. B. Blue, and these were solemnly set apart to the work of the ministry: Oscar Pittman Gentry, Jacob Wayman Madewell, William Louis Nelson, and Mark Bailey Williams; local elder, Robert Edwin Justice.

Closing.—The minutes of the evening session were read and approved. It was voted that the Conference adjourn with the reading of the appointments. The Bishop addressed the Conference at some length upon our itinerant policy and explained somewhat the manner of making the appointments. He then called question 36: "Where are the preachers stationed this year?" and answered by reading the appointments. The doxology was sung, and the Conference adjourned sine die, with the benediction by Bishop Atkins.

REPORTS ADOPTED.

BOARD OF MISSIONS.

Report No. 1.

We desire, first of all, to express our gratitude to God for his signal blessings upon the efforts of our Board during the year, and for the clearer vision, the deeper interest, the quickened conscience, and the larger liberality that have come to the Church.

The Centenary Movement has ushered in a new day. We must remember, however, that it is the dawn, and not the noontide, that is upon us.

From the General Board of Missions and from the Centenary Commission come encouraging reports of the work at home and abroad. This applies to the fields in which our Church for years has worked, and from Belgium, Poland, and Czecho-Slovakia—fields entered within the last two years. Reports indicate in the home Church a larger number of additions on profession of faith than for many years. Tens of thousands of our people have accepted the principles of Christian stewardship and become tithers as an acknowledgment of the fact that all property is in trust from God.

The reports from the foreign fields, both as to the present status and plans for the future, are such as to cause us to thank God and take courage.

Within our own Conference substantial progress has been made during the year. Successful revivals have been held in a large per cent of the Churches. A number of strong men of the Conference were secured by our Board to hold meetings in several of the mission centers, with only expenses paid by the charge. By this means much good was accomplished.

More than four hundred acres of land have been deeded to the Church for our vocational school at Crossville, which institution, when opened, will do a much needed and monumental work for the young men and women of that mountain country.

There has been an increase of fifty per cent on salaries of pastors serving our missions, which represents a good beginning in our efforts to induce missions financially able to become self-supporting and all others assisted by the Board to pay each Conference missionary a living wage. Our plans call for at least eight new missions for next year.

We are glad to report that our Conference stands near the top among the Conferences of our Church on percentage paid on Centenary pledges. It also ranks high on family altars, but does not stand so well on number of tithers reported. Nor have we had as ready a response to the call for volunteers for life service as we should have had.

We urge an increased effort along all evangelistic lines—through the revival services, through all the Church organizations and activities, and by individuals working to win the unsaved to God. We must press the battle for a real world-wide revival.

Personal and family prayers are vital factors in any progressive program of our Church. We may well offer the disciples' petition: "Lord, teach us how to pray."

We are fully persuaded that missionary specials will quicken the interest of the local Church, and we rejoice in the large number of specials carried by the Churches of our Conference; and yet there are many strong Churches that have not taken adequate specials and some no special whatever. We would urge every Church to have a special and get the advantage of the "living link."

Stewardship, and tithing as an acknowledgment of stewardship, we must press with prayerful persistence. This fundamental feature of the work already done, conducted by the Education Commission, is to play a big part in the program of our Church. To this cause of Christian education we will, of course, give ourselves as earnestly and as gladly as we gave ourselves to the Centenary Movement.

Two institutions assisted by your Board and worthy of all commendation and entitled to the heartiest support of every member of our Conference—namely, the Methodist Summer Conference for Christian Workers at Ovoca and the Young Preachers' Institute—report this year's sessions to have been the best either institution has known. The good being done in the training of our young people at Ovoca and the training of our young preachers in the Institute are matters of the very first importance, if we are to consider the future of our Conference. Dr. J. J. Stowe is recommended as a member of the Committee for the Young Preachers' Institute.

We recommend our Missionary Voice, which is a wide-awake periodical. We would urge all Churches to make an honest effort to circulate this periodical, and our Conference and general organs, the Midland Methodist and Christian Advocate. We simply must get our people to read our literature if we are to have an intelligent and efficient Church.

We rejoice in the work of our laymen in filling the vacant pulpits. We would urge our pastors to try to secure their services, so that all Churches may have a service weekly.

We congratulate those Churches of our Conference which raise their assessments early in the year. This assures success and saves interest. We believe in the Every-Member Canvass for handling all the regular Church finances, and are glad to hear that an increasing number of Churches are using it.

As we enter upon the Educational Campaign, we must press with more, rather than less, vigor the matter of payment in full of all Centenary pledges. We have found that where the people are kept informed and the proper effort is made these pledges are collected with encouraging ease.

We recommend J. Allison Molloy, William B. Ricks, F. M. Massey, E. R. McCord, and T. C. Ragsdale for appointment to serve as the Evangelistic Committee.

We endorse as General Evangelists W. A. Swift, J. B. Wagoner, G. A. Klein, Walt Holcomb, and L. J. Miller. Lay Evangelist, B. G. Regen.

We submit herewith a report from J. E. Edgerton, Conference Lay Leader.

CONFERENCE LAY LEADER.

To a very large extent the regular lay organization in the Tennessee Conference is identical with the Centenary organization. Seven out of ten District Lay Leaders were District Campaign Directors for the Eight-Day Centenary Drive, and the Conference Lay Leader was Conference Campaign Director. It may be said, therefore, that as far as the laymen's part in the Centenary was concerned it was almost wholly the achievement of the Laymen's Missionary Movement. It is very clear that except for the leadership among the laymen, which had been developed by the movement, it would not have been possible to supply the need of the Centenary for men qualified to consummate successfully a task so engaging in its proportions.

The organization machinery set up for the collection of the Centenary pledges and for conserving the results of that notable campaign does not embrace in as definite a way as it perhaps should the established lay organization of the Church. After the Eight-Day Drive had been successfully completed, the laymen, for the most part, who had been at the front, retired to the rear of another organization which succeeded theirs. This part of the Centenary sequel has been very unfortunate both for the Centenary and for the laymen, who have thus been allowed to drift into inaction. To get the organized lay forces throughout the Church solidly behind and actively supporting the collection and conservation program is our immediate objective. During this session of the Conference, the Lay Activities Committee has outlined a program of action which will enable us to reach this desired end.

While my duties as Centenary Treasurer for the whole Church have absorbed so much of my time as to make it impossible for me to be this year the sort of Conference Lay Leader I should like to be and to do the immense amount of work that such an officer should do, I have been able to observe most gratifying evidences of progress in lay interest and activity in the Conference. The Conference Lay Leader for the next year will have ten earnest, consecrated District Lay Leaders to coöperate with him in an aggressive program, and the end of another year should, and no doubt will, find the laymen occupying a distinctly advanced position in spiritual enterprise.

By C. R. Wade, Secretary of Board.

BOARD OF EDUCATION.

Report No. 1.

1. Whereas the General Conference in its prophetic consideration of the two great responsibilities of the Church recommended that there be two Church-wide movements in the present quadrennium, one for missions and one for Christian Education, in the following resolution: "We recommend that the right of way be given to the Centenary Movement in the first two years and to the Education Campaign during the second two years of the quadrennium, and that during these two periods, as far as possible, the full power of the Church be delivered in these respective campaigns."

2. Whereas during the last two years by General Conference action, Martin College, our Conference College, has not been allowed to seek funds, and is, therefore, in pressing need of additional funds for buildings and endowment; and whereas our Conference should establish and maintain a mountain school.

3. Whereas our Church is now in need of at least eight hundred preachers and is calling for hundreds of missionaries and trained Christian workers not now available.

4. And inasmuch as we feel our responsibility jointly with the other Conferences to focus the attention of our people upon the processes of Christian education in the home, the Church, and the school.

Therefore be it

Resolved: 1. That this Conference coöperate most heartily in the plans of the Education Commission's fivefold objective in carrying out the instruction of the General Conference as given on page 11 of the "Educational Survey," which has been placed in the hands of all our preachers by the General Board of Education.

2. That we take every possible step to fix the attention of all our people upon the fundamental place of Christian education in the life of the Church, and that to this end we urge all pastors to preach and teach and laymen to lend their influence in every possible way.

3. That we call upon our people for their prayers in behalf of the presidents and faculties and trustees of our schools, for our young people in attendance upon them, praying especially that the right young men and young women may be led to give their lives as preachers, missionaries, and trained workers, and that these schools may supplement the work of home and Church in leading the young people of this generation to the acknowledgment of Christ as their Lord and Master in whatever work they may choose.

4. That we appoint a Conference Education Commission, composed of the following members: W. R. Webb, Jr., W. T. Wynn, J. A. Bostick, E. P. Anderson, W. B. Ricks, R. H. Hudgens, and A. H. Thomas. Said Commission shall coöperate with the connectional Education Commission in putting into operation plans necessary for securing the support of all our Churches for this movement.

5. That we assume as the quota for this Conference the sum of $250,000 for Martin College, $150,000 for the establishment of a mountain school at Crossville, Tenn., and a forty per cent surplus over and above this $400,000—that is, $160,000, making a total of $560,000 for the Conference, to which is to be added $300,000 for connectional interests—making a grand total of $860,000. And we request and authorize the Conference Educational Commission, with the help of the presiding elders, to divide this amount equitably among the Churches of the Conference. We reserve to our Conference the right to control and appropriate the $160,000 surplus referred to above.

6. That we request the appointment of a Conference Education Secretary to be the full-time executive of the Conference Education Commission carrying out the general policies of the connectional Education Commission. The Board recommends the appointment of Rev. D. M. Ausmus.

7. That we fix on the second Sunday in November as Education Day for all stations, and the month extending from the second Monday in November to the second Sunday in December as Education Month for all circuits, when sermons on the Christian Education Movement will be preached in all pulpits.

8. That we call upon our Churches to coöperate in a manner worthy of the impelling need of our Christian education program in arousing every member to an appreciation of his or her responsibility and in giving fullest financial support in the collections to be taken next spring.

WILLIAM R. WEBB, JR., Chairman;

J. A. BOSTICK, Secretary.

Report No. 2.

Martin College is entering upon what promises to be its best year. It is to-day one of our greatest assets. The time is now here when an enlarged equipment is absolutely necessary for any further growth.

The W. T. Thomas School presents many difficulties, but seems to be doing good work.

We recommend that the first $50,000, or part thereof, of the $160,000 surplus to be raised in the Christian Education Movement be used as an endowment for a unit of the system of industrial schools to be located in the bounds of the Mt. Pleasant District, the endowment to be withdrawn when the Board of Education judges it unwise to continue it. The endowment then to be used as the Conference may direct.

We recommend that $150 be appropriated for the Ovoca Conference, that $100 be appropriated for the Young Preachers' Institute at Franklin, that $1,800 be appropriated for Martin College, and $5,000 for the reduction of the debt of Martin College.

We recommend for election as trustees of Martin College J. W. Cherry, J. R. Stewart, W. J. Russell, A. L. King, and John E. Edgerton.

We recommend as trustees of the W. T. Thomas School H. H. Allen, W. B. Taylor, and L. A. Dickson.

We recommend for appointment A. M. Trawick as Professor of Sociology at Scarritt Bible and Training School, A. E. Clement as a Financial Secretary of the General Board of Education, George A. Morgan as President of Martin College, W. W. Alexander as Secretary of Interracial World Movement of North America, and E. P. Anderson as Conference Secretary of Education.

MOUNTAIN SCHOOL COMMITTEE.

We, your committee appointed at the last session of the Tennessee Conference on recommendation of the Conference Board of Missions to locate a vocational school in the Cumberland Mountains, beg leave to submit the following report:

After a full and thorough investigation of all the propositions offered for sites for the school, we unanimously chose the one offered by the people of Crossville, which comprises four hundred and twenty acres of land beginning less than two miles from the town and lying between the Tennessee Central railroad and the Dixie Highway, between Crossville and Janestown. This is as good land as is to be found on the mountain and is at the very center of the plateau, is well watered, and has fifty acres of cleared land. A fee simple deed with the Methodist Trust Clause has been executed to your committee as trustees for our Conference.

Your committee propose the following policies for the school system:

1. The main school is to be vocational, with a preparatory course sufficient for entrance of students into the best universities of the country.
2. Branch grammar or unit vocational schools also owned and controlled by the Church.
3. The head of the school must be a strong man. Too much emphasis cannot be laid upon the selection of this head.
4. The financial support of the school must be a liberal one.
5. Only such buildings to be erected at the central school at Crossville for the beginning as are necessary.
6. The school is primarily to be in the interest of the boys and girls of the mountain section, and help will be furnished through scholarships and labor to provide for those not able to provide for themselves.

We nominate the following trustees for the said school and recommend their election:

For One Year.—T. W. Noland, Millard Reed, and Mrs. R. E. Moore.

For Two Years.—J. W. Dorton, E. B. Chappell, and Mrs. J. J. Gray.

For Three Years.—J. E. Edgerton, W. V. Jarratt, and O. K. Holladay.

For Four Years.—William B. Ricks, E. E. French, and W. B. Taylor.

For Five Years.—George E. Bennie, C. E. Hawkins, and W. R. Webb, Jr.

Respectfully submitted.

SUNDAY SCHOOL BOARD.

At the last session of the General Conference, legislation was enacted looking to and providing for the most thorough-going policy and program of religious education ever attempted by any previous General Conference.

The General Sunday School Board, under the able leadership of Bishop James Atkins and Dr. E. B. Chappell, entered upon the new quadrennium with every hope of executing the most far-reaching plan ever conceived by any Protestant denomination of America. And such has been the achievement during the first half of the present quadrennium that leaders of other great denominations have said, without hesitation, that the Southern Methodist Church occupies the place of front rank among all Churches, both as to ideals of religious education and the means and methods employed to reach these aims.

The two years passed have been the most trying of all the years. The disturbed conditions resulting from the World War, together with the influenza epidemic, have made normal Sunday school work most difficult. And yet the battle has been pressed with such intelligence and zeal that the achievement along all lines has been phenomenal. Especially should be noted the extension and growth of the training school system throughout the connection. Another fact that should not be overlooked is that of the increased missionary spirit and offerings, as is expressed in terms of gifts totaling an amount equal to what the whole Church raised a few years ago. As to the efficiency of the Sunday school in the work of evangelism, a study of ten typical Conferences brings out the significant fact that eighty-six per cent of those uniting with the Church came through the Sunday school. Other facts might be enumerated, but nothing more is necessary to establish the conclusion that the most vital force and fruitful field for the kingdom of God is the Sunday school.

In view of the foregoing, and after thorough study and discussion, the Conference Sunday School Board will undertake to carry out a plan of work for the betterment of the Sunday schools during the coming year far in advance of anything yet attempted. The policy adopted is the result of coöperation between the Sunday School Board and the presiding elders. A committee of six, representing the presiding elders and the Sunday School Board, together with the Conference Field Secretary, has gone over the whole matter and reached a unanimous agreement of program and policy for the ensuing year. Some of the items of this policy are as follows:

1. As many Sunday schools as there are organized Churches.
2. A Sunday school enrollment equal to the Church membership.
3. One hundred and fifty local training classes for the officers and teachers enrolled in the department of training and doing credit work.
4. The number of credit students for the coming year 700.
5. Two Conference-wide training schools for officers and teachers—one at Nashville and the other at Ovoca.
6. Conference-wide federation of adult Bible classes. Already planned for March 21-23 at Nashville.
7. Ten district institutes of at least two full days' length.
8. A special course on the rural Sunday school problem under the direction of the most efficient rural expert available to be given at the Young Preachers' Institute.
9. That a membership campaign be put on in the early spring in every charge in the Conference.
10. Since the evangelistic effort in the Sunday schools of the past year was of such success, we urge that a similar effort be made during the Easter period of the coming year in all of our Sunday schools.
11. That Sunday School Day be observed, according to the law of the Church, in every Sunday school.
12. That we make an attempt to keep the Sunday schools open throughout the year, regardless of bad roads and unfavorable conditions.

In view of the following facts relative to the Sunday school work of the past year, we have reason to thank God and take courage. The Sunday school has had a substantial increase in membership. A large per cent of those uniting with the Church came through the Sunday school. The Field Secretary and the Conference Elementary Superintendent have conducted successfully sixteen institutes in connection with charges, groups of charges, and as district institutes. Two successful standard training schools have been promoted, and training classes in local schools operated so successfully that the Conference now stands third in the list of the whole Church in the matter of the number of credit certificates issued—viz., six hundred. Sunday School Day was observed in ninety-five per cent of the charges, with a hundred per cent increase in the offering. The missionary spirit has been quickened and a large number of specials carried by the Sunday schools. New Sunday schools have been organized, and many reorganized on a more efficient basis. In short, our Conference Sunday school workers have been busy, and we are proud of the record of the past year. We most heartily commend the work, therefore, of our Secretary, J. W. Pearson, and the Conference Elementary Superintendent, Mrs. L. P. Hanner, for their faithful services and untiring efforts.

By unanimous vote, the Sunday School Board requests the appointment of the Rev. J. W. Pearson as Field Secretary for the coming year.

The Board recommends Rev. W. M. Green as Sunday School Agent.

DAVID M. AUSMUS, Secretary.

TEMPERANCE AND SOCIAL SERVICE.

We have of late years made fine progress in the great cause of temperance. The eighteenth amendment to the Constitution of the United States is a great gain, but this progress must not be regarded as final victory. The amendment is our authority for the statute that removes alcohol as a beverage. Congress, according to the late decision of the Supreme Court, has a right to define the statute and determine the percentage of alcohol in the sale of beverages. This is a vital point. The Volstead Act limits alcohol to one-half of one per cent to all legal beverages. We must not allow the election of a Congress that will modify this statute. We are utterly opposed to the suggestion of many of our politicians that light wines and beer be permitted to be sold legally. That conception would break the dikes and allow our country to be flooded with all kinds of alcoholic beverages. We must make no concession to the accursed stuff that has wrecked more homes, destroyed more people, and produced more sorrow than all wars, famines, and pestilences combined.

Whatever may be said to the contrary, the purpose and mission of social service is not to usurp the functions of the Holy Spirit in the regeneration of the individual, but to define and adjust social relationships, to correct false conceptions of the social order, and destroy all social wrongs. Yea, it goes farther and seeks to prevent all kinds of wrongs. This program is worthy of the earnest and persistent efforts of the Church, put forth in a systematic way by the use of all available agencies. There are changes taking place in the rural districts that we as a Church would do well to consider and to adjust our policy to these things. For instance, there is a decided and an increasing interest in the building of good roads. Along with this, schools are being moved to centers and their numbers reduced to correspond to the conditions and demands of the day. Modern facilities of travel have not only made these things possible and necessary, but all the facts make an urgent demand for such concentration. It is to be hoped that our policy as a Church will be as wise and make our Churches in the country social centers. This would give us strong, live Churches, which would be able to make a much larger contribution to both the religious and social needs of the people. If we fail in this, some other Church may take the crown.

The late war disclosed the startling fact that more than a third of our young men had such serious defects physically that they were disqualified for service in the army. Many of these defects were shown to be curable. Most of them could have been avoided entirely if they had been taken in time. We recommend to all parents and teachers that all children be physically examined with great care by competent physicians, that our people may grow up with sound and strong bodies.

We call your attention to the work done by the Nashville and the Murfreesboro Districts along this line. A plant costing no less than $75,000 is being constructed at Warioto Settlement to be called henceforth Methodist Centenary Institute for the care and study of all social problems. A like work is being done by the Church at Murfreesboro. The women of our Church in the great missionary organization, through the Bethlehem House, the Wesley House, and clean-up campaigns are to be commended and helped in what they have done to make all moral and sanitary conditions better.

What can be done by a social service committee in rural communities has been fully demonstrated in more than one instance. In a community where the pastor, if he be wide awake to the importance of the social teachings of Jesus, considering especially the physical and mental needs, can do a great and good work, the social service committee of a certain Church did such a work. In a school community, with the school taken as a center of activities reaching in every direction to a distance of two or three miles, a campaign was carried on to better conditions.

The community enlisted the coöperation of the physician in the community with the Church and school. The program was to eliminate all fly-borne diseases by removing the causes. This applied to family premises as well as public places. Together with this work was carried on an examination of the health conditions of the school children along with examination of all others who sought it. Free treatment with typhoid serum was given. In a community covering sixteen square miles of territory where typhoid fever made its annual visits and other fly-borne diseases held sway, the summer and fall following the campaign not a case was noted. This work was gladly assisted by the State Health Department of Nashville.

A more determined and conscientious attention should be paid to this department of Church work by our pastors. During the year, to ascertain what was being done along this line, two hundred letters were written to two hundred pastors of the Conference, bearing a stamped and addressed card for return, asking four simple and easy-to-be-answered questions regarding the work along this line. Out of the two hundred only eighty-four answered. Of the eighty-four who answered thirty-seven had elected and organized the social service committee, thirty-two had elected and not organized, thirteen had done neither. Of the eighty-four, forty-five had done nothing with the committee; thirty-nine were doing various work—such as caring for the sick and poor, looking after strangers, clean-up campaigns, and work at Warioto Settlement.

Our brethren should have a conscience on such matters. Our honored Conference Lay Leader, Colonel Edgerton, says he never fails to answer courteously every letter coming to him, even advertisements.

Again we call your attention to the provisions made for this work in our Discipline. Let each pastor and Sunday school superintendent see that the committee is organized and at least some sort of work undertaken this year. (See paragraph 113 in the Discipline.)

N. B. TUCKER, Secretary.

BOARD OF CHURCH EXTENSION.

Despite the high cost of all materials used in construction, prices that almost forbid the enterprising of new churches, your Board has had almost as many calls for aid during the period of high prices as at any time in its history. We are glad to note also that a much better class of churches is being built, especially in our rural communities. Some of the churches aided by this Board, built in prosperous country communities, would do credit to our larger cities.

We rejoice in the fact that more adequate arrangements are being made for departmental Sunday school work, but we are sorry to report that there are still many churches being planned and built without any reference whatever to this most vital work of the Church. We would again, therefore, call attention of both presiding elders and pastors to our Church Architectural Department, by consultation with which it is easy to plan churches at very moderate cost which will take care of the needs of a modern Sunday school. Few of us realize the proportions to which our general work of Church extension has grown. We have come to be a great church-building society, so much so, that few churches are built without calling upon us for aid, the same being true of our parsonages. The General Board Loan Fund is now more than a million and a half dollars, and more than this whole amount was asked for at their last meeting.

We have stated these facts for the following reasons: First, to show the progress that our Church is making in her building enterprises; and, second, to say that the time has come when our people should not only turn to this Board for aid, but think seriously about aiding this Board in doing its colossal task. We, therefore, urge that every pastor send to the general office for literature, inform himself as to our work, and preach a sermon in every church in his charge on the gospel of Church extension, thus informing our people as to what an investment in this Board will do.

The assessment against our Conference for Church extension is the same as last year, $10,304.

Applications for aid were before us this year amounting to $6,250. As our Board only gets half the amount raised in our Conference for Conference appropriation, the other half going to the General Board, you will readily see that we were asked for much more than we had to give and have, therefore, been compelled to scale the appropriations made. After getting all the information available, we have tried to be just and fair with each applicant.

We have made the following grants:

EVANGELISM.

We rejoice in the well-nigh universal spirit of evangelism that has pervaded our Conference in the past year. Many gracious revivals have been held, and personal evangelism has had a large place in most all evangelistic efforts.

We have commended and urged the plans outlined in the Centenary Movement for thorough survey and simultaneous effort, and a large number of the pastors co-operated.

Our Conference will show a large net gain in membership this year.

What has been accomplished thus far is, we trust, only a foretaste of what we may have in the coming Conference year. We urge all our pastors and laymen to pray, lay plans, and work for a universal revival in our Church this year. The need is great, and the opportunity was never greater.

We suggest that surveys continue and that the laymen be used freely. We also suggest that greater efforts be used in evangelism in the Sunday schools. This is the greatest and richest field we have. If we are ever to reach the whole world for Christ, we must gather the children into the fold and instruct and train them in the spirit and work of the Master.

J. ALLISON MOLLOY, Chairman.

SABBATH OBSERVANCE.

Your committee submit herewith the report of the committee appointed at our 1919 Conference to plan and work for better Sabbath observance in our States and nation.

Soon after our appointment as your committee to prepare and urge the enactment of Sunday laws by State and nation to stop the general Sabbath desecration now imperiling our country, we prepared a law for enactment by our State Legislature as follows:

KEEP THE SABBATH OR LOSE OUR LIBERTIES.

Under resolutions unanimously adopted November 3, 1919, by the Annual Conference of Tennessee Methodists in McKendree Church, at Nashville, Tenn., a committee composed of Noah W. Cooper, Ex-Senator W. R. Webb, and Dr. E. B. Chappell have prepared and will urge our next legislature to enact the following law. Our Supreme Court April 12, 1919, said further legislation was necessary to deal with new conditions, and this law is to perfect our Sunday laws. This committee is appealing to all Tennessee citizens to support this law:

An act to make it unlawful for any person, corporation, or company to carry on any ordinary vocation or business on Sunday.

1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Tennessee, the public welfare requiring it, that hereafter it shall be unlawful for any person, corporation, or company to work or carry on his or its ordinary vocation or business on Sunday, and this is meant to include and prohibit the playing of all professional baseball or other like ball game on Sunday; the operation of all freight and passenger trains on Sunday; the operation of all theaters and moving-picture shows on Sunday; the printing, publishing, delivering, advertising in and sale and circulation of all papers or publications published on Sunday or purporting to be published on Sunday; all buying and selling or trading on Sunday, including all soft drink or soda water Sunday stores; excepting, however, instances of real charity and necessity, such as taking the ox out of the ditch and supplying medicines and necessities for those overtaken by distressing conditions that could not be provided against before Sunday; but this exception is not meant to allow any of the things above specifically prohibited, nor shall this be taken to allow drug stores or other stores to keep open or do any business on Sunday, saving only to supply such needed medicines as above indicated.

2. Any person doing the things above declared unlawful, or aiding or abetting the same, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and, on conviction by due process of law, shall be fined not less than $50 nor over $100 for each offense and shall also, in the discretion of the court, be imprisoned in the county jail or workhouse for not over three months.

3. Any corporation or stock company doing the things above prohibited shall upon conviction be fined not less than $100 nor over $1,000 for the first offense and for the second offense shall forfeit its charter or franchise and be enjoined by the trial court from doing any business in Tennessee.

4. Upon application by sworn petition of five or more citizens to any judge or chancellor of a court of record in this State that court or judge shall have power by temporary and permanent injunction, as upon ordinary suit, to enjoin the doing on Sunday of any of the things above declared unlawful which it may be shown to the court is about to be done.

5. The purpose of this act is to express the determination of the people of Tennessee to honor the Sabbath and keep it holy as God commands and thereby secure for all that opportunity for spiritual and bodily refreshment decreed by our Lord for the happiness of mankind and the safety of all nations.

6. This act shall take effect from its passage, the public welfare requiring it.

In accordance with our direction, as shown in Conference Journal for 1919, page 52, we also prepared for enactment into law by Congress, a national Sunday law, as follows:

BE IT ENACTED BY THE SENATE AND HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE UNITED STATES IN CONGRESS ASSEMBLED:

1. Hereafter it shall be unlawful for any person in the employment of the United States to work or carry on his ordinary vocation on Sunday.

2. It shall be unlawful for any person or corporation to operate on Sunday any freight or passenger train, or mail train, or any other train, or part of a train, on Sunday in the carrying on of interstate commerce, trade, or traffic of any kind.

3. It shall be unlawful for any post office to be open on Sunday or to deliver mail on Sunday; it shall be unlawful for any mail to be carried or delivered on Sunday by any employee of the United States, whether in city or country.

4. It shall be unlawful for any newspaper or other paper or publication published or purporting to be published on Sunday to be received, carried, or delivered as mail by any agency of the United States, in any post office, or over any route under the jurisdiction of the United States.

5. It shall be unlawful for any person or corporation engaged in interstate commerce or carrying on any business or vocation under the laws of or with the permission or license from the United States, or any of its agencies, to do or carry on any ordinary vocation or business on Sunday, the purpose of this act being to express our national determination to honor the Sabbath day and keep it holy as God commands, thereby securing for all that opportunity for spiritual and bodily refreshment decreed by our Lord for the happiness of all men and the safety of all nations.

6. Any person who does any of the things above declared unlawful, or who procures or aids another in doing any of the things above declared unlawful, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and punished upon conviction by due process of law by a fine of not under $100 nor over $10,000 for each offense and by imprisonment for not over six months, in the discretion of the court.

7. And any corporation that does or aids in doing these forbidden things shall, upon conviction, be fined not less than $1,000 nor over $100,000 for each offense and, upon conviction a second time for like offense shall forfeit its charter and franchise and be enjoined from operating in interstate commerce. Provided, however, that emergency instances of charity and necessity are not included nor punishable under the provisions of this act.

These proposed laws would be a great step forward, but strictly in line with God's command, with the needs of all people, and with the honored precedents of our forefathers. God made the Sabbath for the physical, mental, and spiritual rest of all. No one has a right to labor on the Sabbath for money considerations, and no one should encourage or condone such labor. Even in ancient times feudal lords would take the collar off their slaves on the Sabbath to give them rest. It is an ill omen which enslaves one class of people to serve another class on the Sabbath.

We have spent much time, money, and effort to put our plea for better Sabbath observance into the hearts of our people. We have appealed to our governor in person and to the publishers of Sunday papers and to some of the owners and operators of Sunday trains. We have used the religious and secular press as best we could. Our proposed Sunday national law appears at page 3377, of the Congressional Record for February 20, 1920, through the courtesy of Senator McKellar; but so far no Congressman has championed our bill. On every side we are told that the Sabbath should be preserved, but the excuse is made that certain forms of Sabbath breaking have become so common that it will take a revolution of public sentiment to stop it. The task before us is a big one and will require much time and prayer and patience. But it is our manifest duty to do it.

Our State Legislature meets in January, 1921. We have done our best to get ready for favorable action upon our proposed Sunday law. We ask that a committee be appointed to continue this line of work and to urge the coöperation of all Conferences and Churches and citizens who believe in keeping God's laws and avoiding the curses that are certain to come upon Sabbath breaking people.

NOAH W. COOPER,
W. R. WEBB,
E. B. CHAPPELL.

We heartily approve the laws proposed and prepared by this committee, as shown in their report, and the line of work they have been doing, and we urge that the same committee be appointed by our Bishop to continue this work and to organize as best they can the forces in our State and nation for Sabbath observance, and to plead with all in public and private life for strict Sabbath observance as God commands it; and for public sentiment and laws to honor the Sabbath and preserve it as a holy day for all men.

S. M. KEATHLEY,
MRS. J. J. GRAY, JR.,
B. T. SMOTHERMON,
MRS. ROBERT E. MOORE,
MISS SALLIE RIDLEY.

CHRISTIAN LITERATURE.

Your Board of Christian Literature wish to reaffirm Morley's definition of literature with a slight modification, so as to make it read: "Literature consists of all those writings in which moral truth and human passion are touched with a certain largeness and sanity and attraction of form." We must learn to judge periodicals and books after this fashion and to demand that our Christian periodicals shall be judged thus or similarly before classifying them as literature.

THE MIDLAND METHODIST.

In a very true sense this is the first periodical with which we as a Conference have to do. It is our "Conference organ," as it is also the "Conference organ" of the Holston and the Memphis Conferences. We thank God that he has from the days of John Wesley raised up continuously "among the people called Methodists," as indeed among all Christian denominations, men who have given their lives to promoting the Christian faith by means of the periodical press with self-forgetfulness, faith, and courage worthy of record even in the eleventh chapter of Hebrews.

We called attention a year ago to the financial straits of the Midland Methodist superinduced by world war conditions and to the agreements made by the committees of the three Annual Conferences on our part for a better financial support; and for a better periodical on the part of the publisher. The objectionable advertising then referred to has almost entirely disappeared; but we would suggest that the weekly indiscriminate recommendation of a certain mineral water to sick people, without the necessary diagnosis by men of recognized and legal competency, becomes a menace to public health, if not an infraction of statutory law. We heartily indorse Dr. J. A. Burrow as editor and our own Brother R. S. Tinnon as associate editor for the Tennessee Conference, and commend the work of our existing "commissioners" of the Tennessee Conference.

During the past year the Tennessee and possibly the Holston and Memphis Conferences labored under insuperable handicaps in carrying out our promises of increased support. That failure made it impossible for the publisher to reduce the annual subscription to $1.50. In some districts and in individual Churches a measure of success was achieved. In Madison Street Church, Clarksville, and possibly elsewhere, a special campaign organization succeeded in putting the Midland Methodist into practically every home represented in the membership. We recommend that in each district as a unit, the increased subscription campaign be carried on. The publisher, Brother Patton, on his part, promises that when the cash subscription list of any district reaches one cash subscription for every ten members of the Church in that district, each such paid up subscription of $2 will at once be credited for sixteen months, instead of twelve months. Meantime, until such realization in the respective districts, the subscription price must necessarily remain at $2 to keep the paper alive. We also call attention of all our presiding elders and pastors to the importance of setting a definite date and period for the subscription campaign.

The Christian Advocate is the Tennessee Conference "general organ," as it is of each Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, in our country. We heartily commend the editor, Dr. Ivey, and his corps of assistants and contributors.

The Methodist Review, edited by Dr. F. M. Thomas, is distinctly a periodical contribution of our Methodism to the Christian literature of this age and civilization. We reaffirm our faith that the Review should be in the course of study for our theological students and the undergraduate ministry of our Conferences. The objection that our young preachers are not capable of such reading is an impeachment of our standards of educational preparation. Other Methodisms, particularly that of Canada, are not so timid in their demands upon undergraduate ministers and theological candidates.

THE PUBLISHING HOUSE.

We acknowledge the receipt of the 1920 annual statement of the condition of the Publishing House, presented by the Book Committee. We note that the total assets are, in round numbers, $10,000 less than last year, or in exact figures amount to $1,764,438.17.

But this year has been one of great difficulty; superinduced by sundry conditions due to the late World War.

The statement carried the following table of "profit and loss":

Subsidy to Pacific Methodist Advocate	$ 4,000 00
Dividends to Conference claimants	20,000 00
Loss on Methodist Review	6,034 80
Loss on Christian Advocate	28,979 86
Loss on Epworth Era	5,082 06
Accounts receivable and depreciation	13,349 56

In 1919 the total amount of subsidy to the four periodicals mentioned above was $14,757.05; this year (1920) it has been $44,096.72, an increase as great, in round numbers, as the dividends granted the superannuated preachers of the whole Church, plus the total decrease ($10,000 approximately) in the assets of the house.

Respectfully submitted.

JOHN J. RANSOM,

On Behalf of Board of Christian Literature, Tennessee Conference.

EPWORTH LEAGUES.

We, your Epworth League Board, beg leave to make the following report and recommendations:

The Epworth League has made greater progress this year, in all lines of activities, than during any like period in the history of the Conference.

Twenty new leagues have either been revived or newly organized during the year.

Rev. C. C. Hinkle, the president of the League Board, has presented the League work at eight District Conferences and assisted in holding seven League institutes.

The Board and Conference Leagues are working together in the promotion of League Conferences.

The Mid-Winter Conference at Gallatin and the Summer Conference at Ovoca were especially successful.

The League anniversary day was more generally observed than in any previous year. A contribution of $78 was secured.

The highest ideals have been adhered to throughout the year in our aim and policy.

Whereas the young people are the hope of the Church, we recommend that great emphasis be placed upon the following phases of League work during the ensuing year:

1. Missionary education and giving, life service, and stewardship of time, talent, and substance.

2. That the Intermediate and Junior Leagues be emphasized in keeping with their importance.

3. That the Annual Conference coöperate with the Board and Conference Epworth Leagues in making successful the Mid-Winter Conference, meeting at Clarksville, January 22-25, 1921, and the Summer Conference at Ovoca in July, 1921.

4. That Garfield Evans be appointed as Superintendent of Missionary Work of General Epworth League Board.

Respectfully submitted.

C. C. HINKLE, President;

W. M. CASSETTY, JR., Secretary.

CHURCH PROPERTY.

Your committee ask to submit the following report:

We have 684 churches, 644 congregations with buildings, showing 40 Churches without a church home. Value of churches, $2,625,035; indebtedness on same, $50,872. Parsonages, 177; value, $477,250. Indebtedness on parsonages, $21,153. Insurance, $1,130,150. Number of churches damaged or destroyed, 5; parsonages, 2; damage, $9,689; loss collected, $2,689.

Your committee recommend that our church buildings be kept in good order. That the trustees be urged to see that broken glass in windows be immediately replaced. That the doors be kept closed when no service is being held, and that the building be kept clean inside and out. The condition of the church building reflects very largely the amount of interest the people have in the kingdom of God. Let us not forget that it is God's house.

We also recommend that our ministers see that the surroundings of the parsonage be neat and a model for other homes, in all things let us serve the Lord. That each charge be urged to provide a parsonage for its pastor. That the trustees of all our churches and parsonages be made to understand the sound business policy of seeing that all property is properly insured.

Respectfully submitted.

JOHN O. ENSOR, Chairman;

ROBERT HALL, Secretary.

AMERICAN BIBLE SOCIETY.

We, your Committee on the American Bible Society, beg leave to make the following report:

The American Bible Society is taking no backward step, but instead is ever planning to move steadily forward, nerved by a great purpose—namely, to give the Bible to all the nations of the earth. We trust that our people will continue to give the support of their prayers and means so absolutely necessary to the accomplishment of the high aim and purposes of the society.

OVOCA ASSEMBLY.

The Methodist Summer Conference held at Ovoca, Tenn., July 6-16, 1920, was the largest and in many respects the best Conference we have ever had.

The class work in all departments was most thorough. In the Sunday school work we had five classes in principles and methods, and two in Bible study. Seventy-seven delegates received credit toward teacher-training diplomas.

The mission study classes used the books suggested for the current year by the Mission Board.

The Epworth League program was one of the best ever presented at the Conference, more than one hundred Leaguers secured Christian culture certificates by meeting requirements of the Central Office.

The recreational program was in charge of a special director and assistant.

During the year the Board of Control have added a bowling alley, the cost of which, including the building, was about $1,000, all of which is paid, there being no debt of any kind on the property, and insurance paid for three years.

We recommend the following names for election as members of the Board of Control whose term of office shall expire in 1924: J. Allison Molloy, A. J. Morgan, and William M. Cassetty, Jr.

Respectfully submitted.

MEMOIRS.

HENRY J. IVIE was the son of Charles D. and Judith H. Ivie, and was born into this well-ordered home, near Murfreesboro, Tenn., on July 18, 1844. Before arriving at military age, young Ivie volunteered in the Confederate Army in 1861. For four years his oath of allegiance and obedience to his commanders was loyally observed. Under the ministry of Rev. Felix R. Hill, Sr., in 1868, Henry believed to the saving of his soul from sin and experienced a satisfaction of his sonship with Christ which lasted fifty-two years, many of them years of poverty, burden, and severe trials. Who can count the stars that deck the crown of Felix R. Hill, Sr.? In 1871, at Lebanon, Tenn., being one of a class of fifteen, this young man, who a few years before had been on the marches and battle lines of his loved Southland, offered the after years of his life to the Methodist itinerancy. No braver, truer spirit, sincere to the very core of his being, ever laid a young manhood on the altar of the Church than Henry J. Ivie. At the end of these forty-nine years I am confident not one of the fifteen is yet in active service. His first charge was in Savannah District, with Rev. A. G. Dinwiddie as presiding elder, and was the pleasant little circuit of Hampshire, in Maury County. For twenty-three years he served continuously on circuits—going from one to another, as appointed, doing so as noiselessly as the coming and going of the days. During these twenty-three years he did what he believed to be his best, and that is as much as any bishop in the Church has ever done. In his day, in the places assigned him, he used all the gifts in him to help men and to honor Christ. There are no expectations that any great orators shall speak of him, nor any gifted biographers will write on the shining pages a record of the life of this quiet saint. His record, however, if what we believe shall prove to be real, is on high. Already the name of this unpretending saint, who trod on the stones in the path of his life so softly that his footfalls could not be heard and who walked on the thorns so uncomplainingly that the world never knew of his pain, has been about forgotten. If our Christ is the Saviour we believe him to be, he has already received Henry's certificate, presented to him in Murfreesboro in 1868, and he has been assigned a place among the "company wearing white raiment." For twenty-six years, after his active life and before the day of his ascension, he lived in the silence and loneliness of the sphere of the "forgotten" men. He was a true son of the Church, as loyal and uncomplaining as any man who ever wore a miter, and he toiled and was silent and true for twenty-six years while his Church of over a million members put a dribbling charity in his hand. His humble home in Northeast Nashville was lighted up on January 21, 1920, with a light that never shone on land or sea. Heaven arranged for the ascension of this humble saint. On his face, furrowed by age and care, the heavenly light fell, and the spirit of Henry J. Ivie found the physical doors off their hinges and a shining pathway from his little home to the gates of pearl. Since January 21, 1920, he has been at home. Some day many who knew this humble believer here will have the pleasant surprise of seeing him in the royal company. His wife and children know where to find him.

PAYTON A. SOWELL.

REV. GEORGE MADELL SANDERS was born in Macon County, Tenn., April 3, 1843. While yet a lad he removed with his father's family to Davidson County, a few miles north of Goodlettsville, where he grew to manhood. While yet little more than a youth, he enlisted as a soldier in the Confederate army. In the first engagement he was severely wounded. From the effects of this wound he carried physical defects through life. Brother Sanders passed through the period of the Civil War without becoming a Christian. He became the subject of saving grace on October 1, 1865, and united with the Church on November 13 following. Feeling that the divine hand was laid upon him for the work of the Christian ministry, he at once addressed himself to the task of obtaining an education, availing himself of the best aids within his reach at the time. For two years he attended school at Pleasant Grove Academy in Robertson County. This promptness of action revealed his dominant traits of decision of character and great energy. He had committed himself to Christ for the gospel ministry and was destined soon to prove himself a faithful soldier of the Lord Jesus. He was admitted on trial in the Tennessee Conference in October, 1867, at Clarksville, Tenn. Nothing can make more evident his loyalty to Christ and the itinerancy than his record of service, as shown in the varied and trying fields of his activity. He served the following charges: Fort Deposit, Fountain Head, Red River, Celina, Cookeville, Summit, Gainesboro, Fountain Head and Summit, Cross Plains, Saline, Montgomery, Ashland City, Lynchburg and Mulberry, Charlotte, Cumberland City, Hustburg, Centerville, Fairfield and Castalian Springs. He took the superannuate relation some thirteen years before his death. By close economy and good business habits he had saved enough to buy a modest home, with something over. He settled at South Tunnel in Sumner County, where he and his devoted wife passed their last years happily in the quiet of the country. In his early ministry Brother Sanders was most happily married to Miss Mary Jane Spradlin, of Sumner County. A son and a daughter were born to them. Dr. Herschell Sanders resides in Bowling Green, Ky. Lillian died some twenty-two years before her father. Brother Sanders had a happy home, and members of the family were deeply devoted to each other. In March, 1919, Mrs. Sanders, after a lengthy period of semi-invalidism, went to her heavenly home. Brother Sanders was sorely bereaved and lonely in his home, yet he desired to remain there. His son urged him to come to his home, where he could have every convenience and comfort, but he preferred to remain on the scene of sweet companionship and hallowed memories. The stay was not to be prolonged. Ten short months, but lengthy to him, brought the end. He had just returned home from Conference at McKendree Church ten days before he fell ill. He was taken to his son's home where, after a brief illness, he entered upon a well-deserved rest. His funeral service was conducted by the writer of this memoir in old Fountain Head Church, where he had held a similar service for his wife in March preceding, and where they were united in marriage fifty years before by the Rev. J. G. Ray. Brother Sanders was a true man, a good friend, and faithful in all the relations of life. Our brotherly sympathy goes to his son, Dr. Sanders, the only surviving member of the immediate family, and Dr. H. A. Sanders and other brothers.

JOHN R. STEWART.

JOHN LUCIUS KELLUM, son of Thomas and Jane Kellum, was born in Maury

County, Tenn., June 26, 1848, and departed this life July 18, 1920. He was married to Fannie M. Hunt in 1874, to whom five children were born. This good wife died in May, 1890. Brother Kellum was again married to Anna Elizabeth Anthony in 1892. To this union two children were born. This faithful woman went to her reward a few years ago. Brother Kellum was converted and joined the Church in 1865. He was admitted on trial into the Tennessee Conference at Nashville, Tenn., in October, 1872. Brother Kellum served twenty-one charges, and worked faithfully and diligently in his Master's vineyard. The charges are: Monroe Mission, 1872-74; Cave Spring Circuit, 1875; Salem Circuit, 1876; Livingston Circuit, 1877-79; Cokesbury Circuit, 1880; Monroe Mission, 1881; Goose Creek Circuit, 1882-85; Mt. Olivet Circuit, 1886-87; Richland Circuit, 1888-90; Bee Springs Circuit, 1891-92; Bigbyville Circuit, 1893-94; Pleasant Valley Circuit, 1895-97; Trinity Circuit, 1898; Liberty Circuit, 1899-1900; Jacob's Hill Circuit, 1901-05; Lynchburg Circuit, 1906-07; Nolensville Circuit, 1908-09; Farmington Circuit, 1910-11; Richland Circuit, 1912-14; Alex Green Circuit, 1914-15; Alma-ville Circuit, 1916. He superannuated in the fall of 1916 and went to his farm in Giles County, where he resided until his death. Brother Kellum was a strong Christian character. He was a man among men. Like Barnabas, he was a good man and full of the Holy Ghost and of faith. He had high ideals in living and preaching. As a preacher he was a faithful itinerant. He loved God and the Church with an unbroken love. He preached a positive, evangelical gospel that was able to save all kinds of men. The Bible was the one book with him, and his messages were filled with quotations and illustrations from this great volume. Brother Kellum won many people to Christ and the Methodist Church. He made a host of friends everywhere he went, and men, women, and children sought his companionship because he was preëminently a social man. The love and goodness of this unique character was lived out in his words and life as he came into contact with people, and everybody loved him. He carried sunshine and gladness everywhere he went. He was unexcelled as a pastor. He was my pastor when I was a young preacher. I found him to be faithful and true in all of his work. I never had a better pastor. In no place did Brother Kellum shine more brilliantly than in his family life. Being a good husband and a loving, helpful father, he made his home happy. He lived close to people and nature. Therefore he always reached the people in his charges. I think I can say that he was a natural artist, also an inventor of no small ability. We had many talks about the ministry and things to come, and he was always headed toward heaven. He preached his last sermon at my quarterly meeting, on the text, "Prepare to meet thy God"; and it was so full of love and exhortation that it portrayed to us that he had practiced what he preached. When the end came, though it came suddenly, he was ready. His last days were spent among his lifelong friends, and he rejoiced in this fact. His funeral was held in the Rehobeth Church, near his home, and a very large congregation was present to pay their last tribute of respect to one of God's best children. There were six preachers present, and all took part in the service. Their talks were centered upon his beautiful life and its going away. I knew no text in the Bible which expressed my ideas and feelings of the going of this beloved brother and colaborer so well as this: "Well done, thou good and faithful servant; thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things. Enter thou into the joy of thy Lord." (Matt. xxv. 21.) Yes, when he entered the joys there was a great reunion. His two good Christian wives and Tom, his preacher-son, were there with a host of others to welcome him home. W. A. STROUD.

PLEASANT D. FREEMAN was a native of Perry County, Tennessee. He was born November 16, 1867. His parents were Anderson C. and Elvira Ward Freeman. In his home in Nashville, Tenn., after a lingering and painful illness, surrounded by loved ones who had faithfully and tenderly ministered to him, on December 12, 1919, he quietly went to sleep. His boyhood and youth were passed under the strenuous conditions that characterize country life. He was, therefore, of necessity, more or less inured to hardship. He was early in life thrown on his own resources. This fact developed in him the spirit of self-reliance and the power of initiative. His youth was not wasted in "sowing wild oats." Having an inquiring mind, he improved such educational opportunities as were available. He had literary curiosity, and successfully sought knowledge. He began active life as a teacher in country schools, being associated with his father-in-law, Professor Turner, in his last work of this kind before entering the itinerant ministry. Had his environment and opportunities been favorable in early life, he had the capacity and application to have become a great scholar. The call to enter the gospel ministry was so clear and distinct, however, that he did not temporize or hesitate. As the door of opportunity opened, he entered. While he did not enter Conference for ten years after his conversion, which occurred in 1887, he was during most of this interim a local preacher and traveled as a supply on three different charges. The charges he later served with great acceptability and efficiency were: Bunker Hill, two years; Big Rock, two years; Dover, four years; Hillsboro, four years; Olivet and Lynnville, one year; South Columbia, three years; Ashland City, three years; Monroe Street, two years; Portland and Fountain Head, one year. Failing health enforced his retirement from the last work in mid-year, he taking the superannuate relation at the ensuing Conference session. For a little more than a year he suffered greatly, made a brave fight for health, but, being defeated, suffered patiently to the end. Brother Freeman was most congenially and fortunately married while still a young man to Miss Jennie Turner, who was a great support to him in all his work. He possessed a rich vein of humor and enjoyed a good joke on a high moral plane. Great kindness marked his bearing toward men. He loved the brethren and commanded the respect of those who were not professing Christians. He was a strong preacher and forceful in address. He dearly loved to preach Christ. He loved music. He possessed the requisite qualities to be the head of a happy household. He thoroughly enjoyed his home, receiving the tender love and attention of his devoted wife, daughter, and son in the days of his health and during the long and trying months of his illness. As he drew near the gates of the eternal city, he sounded the notes of triumphant victory in the holy songs of Zion. He sang much, though in feeble voice. The last song of which the words were distinct was, "O, when shall I see Jesus and reign with him above?" with the refrain:

"Christ is all the world to me,
And his glory I shall see,
And before I'd leave my Saviour
I'd lay me down and die."

His brethren in the itinerant ministry attended his funeral service, several of them taking part in the exercises, a number of whom were also present at the interment of his mortal remains in beautiful Spring Hill Cemetery at Nashville, Tenn. We believe that his body shall be called forth in due time by the voice of the Son of God unto the resurrection of life. Our brotherly condolence is sincerely extended to his bereaved wife, daughter, and son, and to his brothers, Rev. W. T. Freeman, of Oklahoma, and Henry and John Freeman, and sister, Mrs. Annie Baskin, of Texas. Brother Freeman lived well and died well, and so he rests.

JOHN R. STEWART.

WILLIAM M. MARTIN.—The secret of true life is service—a service whose rule is: "Let no man seek his own, but each his neighbor's good." From us has gone one who served faithfully in the Master's vineyard, one whose aim was the saving of immortal souls. Through death his efforts have ceased, but how comforting the truth: "They that be wise shall shine as the brightness of the firmament, and they that turn many to righteousness as the stars for ever and ever." William M. Martin, son of J. D. and Matilda Martin, was born May 10, 1872, in Dickson County, Tennessee. He joined the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, in 1897, and was admitted to the Tennessee Conference in 1907. He served the following charges: Stewart Circuit, three years; Liberty Circuit, two years; Little Lot, one year; Cumberland Furnace, four years; White House, two years; Greenbrier, one year; Rome, three years; Lebanon Circuit, two years. It was my pleasure to be Brother Martin's presiding elder for two years, and I was always glad to have an opportunity to be in his home. I learned to love him, and it was a real joy to be associated with him. He had a certain directness and winsomeness of character that won him loyal friends wherever he went. As the Great Teacher was a friend and helper of men, so Brother Martin made it the purpose of his life to do deeds of kindness and of love. The charges he served paid small salaries, but he managed to provide for those dependent upon him and was always anxious to stay clear of debt. His last days were full of suffering. Disease made inroads upon both his mind and body, and death was truly a relief. Surrounded by his immediate family at his home in Leeville, death came to him on June 27, 1920. "Thanks be to God which giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ!" Funeral services were conducted in the church at Leeville by his presiding elder, Rev. T. W. Noland, the writer, and several other members of our Conference. His wife, Annie Holland Martin, one son, Fred, and one daughter, Mildred, together with a host of friends mourn his going, but rejoice in the life he lived, the influence he wielded, and the gospel he preached. With implicit faith in God they meekly submit to his will. A good citizen, a true husband, a loving father, and consecrated minister has gone home to God.

He liveth long who liveth well!
All other life is short and vain;
He liveth longest who can tell
Of living most for heavenly gain.

He liveth long who liveth well!
All else is being thrown away;
He liveth longest, who can tell
Of true things truly done each day.

J. ALLISON MOLLOY.

WARREN BLEDSOE JOSSELYN, JR., son of W. B. and Annie Josselyn, was born in Alameda, Cal., on November 3, 1889, and died on February 30, 1920. He was converted under the ministry of a Rev. Mr. Glover, at the tender age of thirteen, and in a few months, while yet a youth, he felt called of God to the work of the ministry. For some reason, unknown to the writer, he deferred joining the Church for several years. Perhaps it was through respect to the wishes of his father, who was not a believer in the Christian religion and who was very anxious to have his son—his namesake—prepare himself for the practice of the law, of which profession the father was a member. But notwithstanding his devotion to his father and desire to comply with his wishes, young Josselyn could not get rid of the impression that his Heavenly Father had a work of another character for him to do. Realizing that if he was to preach preparation must be made, and having been assured that no assistance need be expected from the father, whose will he could not conscientiously obey, he set about trying to devise some plan by which he might secure the best possible equipment for the work of the ministry. In some way, providentially he believed, he learned that in far away Tennessee there was a school into which without money, a young man, aspiring for a religious education, could enter with the assurance that his own efforts would be supplemented by the assistance of the management. Consequently, in October, 1908, at the age of nineteen he entered Trevecca College, where for the next six years he pursued his studies, completing the theological course in May, 1911, and the academic course in May, 1914. A peculiar circumstance connected with his life is the fact that it was four years or more after having completed his theological course before he joined any Church.

Before connecting himself with the Church he now desired to assure himself of his agreement with its doctrines and polity. Being convinced that he was in hearty agreement with the teachings and practices of Methodism, he sought membership therein. In the summer of 1915, Rev. B. F. Isom, pastor of Waverly Place Methodist Church, Nashville, Tenn., received him into fellowship with that goodly congregation. Soon thereafter he was granted license to preach by the special committee of the Nashville District, and in October of the same year he was received on trial into the Tennessee Conference and was assigned to the Unionville Circuit, Fayetteville District, where he remained two years, doing very satisfactory work and taking a deep hold upon the hearts of the people. From Unionville he was sent to the Huntland Circuit in the same district. Here again he did most satisfactory work for two years. It was the unanimous desire of the members of the Quarterly Conference of this charge that he be returned for the third year; but when told frankly by Brother Josselyn that he was anxious to further pursue his studies, and for that reason would like to have an appointment in or near to the city of Nashville, his people generously and yet reluctantly agreed to his removal. At the session of the Conference at McKendree Church in 1919, Brother Josselyn was assigned the Bellevue and Buffalo Charge in the Nashville District where he was doing very acceptable work, having in the three and a half months of his pastorate ingratiated himself into the hearts of his people, who felt that he was absolutely indispensable to the success of the work of the Church in that most difficult field, when disease and death came and clipped the brittle thread of life and released his gentle spirit, which went back to God. Not only was he doing most excellent work in this pastorate, but was also doing splendidly in George Peabody College, where he had matriculated in September, 1919, with the hope of finishing a course which he mapped out and receiving his degree from this great school. On May 10, 1914, Brother Josselyn was happily married to Miss Rebecca Jacobs, of Virginia, who, like himself, had been a student in Trevecca College. She was a true and faithful helpmeet to her husband, sharing with him the joys and sorrows of an itinerant life, ever ready to do what she could to make his ministry a blessing to the people they delighted to serve. To this union was born on June 5, 1915, a sweet, bright, and precious little girl, whom they called Virginia, after the native State of the mother. Besides his wife and little girl, Brother Josselyn leaves a widowed mother and two sisters in his native State, California. Brother Josselyn was ordained a deacon by Bishop James H. McCoy at the session of the Conference held at Gallatin, Tenn., October, 1917, and an elder by Bishop James Atkins at the Conference at McKendree Church in 1919. In many ways Brother Josselyn was a remarkable man. He was frail of body, but strong in mind; small in stature, but large of heart. He was as gentle as a woman, and yet as brave and manly as a hero. He never temporized or compromised with sin, but spoke his convictions with the voice of a true prophet of God. He was a hard student. He had a thirst for knowledge. He was not content with the knowledge he had gained while in school before entering the ministry, but was ever reaching out for fresh truth. He did not believe that in this life only we need knowledge; but on the other hand he believed that the knowledge and equipment acquired here will be useful in the life to come. On being asked by his wife why he labored so hard to secure an education, he replied: "I am in training here for a greater work up yonder." Doubtless the belief that his work was to continue in the other world, and that he would need a better equipment there, prompted him to enter the university notwithstanding the frailty of his body; for he was naturally of a very delicate mold, and those who knew him best were sure that he was not destined to live many years upon the earth. As a preacher Brother Josselyn was far above the average. He was thoughtful, scriptural, practical, and spiritual, a man who was heard gladly and to great profit by his people. Brother Josselyn was a lover of his home and home ties, and was happy in the love of his devoted wife and darling little daughter, but did not allow the congenial atmosphere of home to keep him from his pastoral duties. To him the work of the kingdom was supreme. He loved his Lord and desired to do his will. He also loved men and was desirous of introducing them to his Lord, that they, too, might know and love him whom to know and love is life eternal. It seems strange that one so useful and promising should be stricken at such an early age; for he was only thirty years, four months, and seventeen days old when he left us. While it is difficult to be reconciled to his going, with his faithful wife, we, who loved him most, are ready to say: "His will, not mine, be done." Brother Josselyn died from the effects of erysipelas at his home in Bellevue after everything that skilled physicians, a trained nurse, and loving friends could do for his relief. His presiding elder, Rev. J. Allison Molloy, with the assistance of a number of the Nashville pastors, conducted a service at the residence, on the morning of February 21, after which the body was conveyed to Unionville, Tenn., his first pastorate, where the writer, assisted by Revs. J. Allison Molloy, W. H. Johnston, George L. Beale, and I. W. Parrish, conducted the funeral services in the Methodist church; and then lovingly we placed all that was mortal in a grave that had been prepared, in the churchyard by men who had loved and honored him while he lived and labored among them, there to await the resurrection of the people of God. The large concourse of people who attended the funeral, despite the terrific rain of the afternoon, and the many beautiful floral designs testify to the great esteem in which he was held by those whom he had so faithfully and efficiently served during the few brief years of his active ministry. While the years of his earthly life were few, those with whom he was closely associated know that they were not spent in vain; but that he accomplished more in this brief time than many others whose lives are lengthened into old age.

"Servant of God, well done, "

Thy glorious warfare's past;
The battle's fought, the race is won,
And thou art crowned at last."
